From the High School Principal- Mark Kalvoda

The first quarter of the 2017-18 school year is well underway and we hope ESHS students are acclimating to the routines of being back at school. The year has been a flurry of activity as students adjust to being back on campus. I appreciate their efforts and perseverance as well the efforts of our staff and parents in setting high expectations for learning. While our students seem to be busier every year, their ability to manage time and balance academics and activities is astonishing. Our student's academic success has been and always will be our ultimate focus. We will continue to challenge our students with relevant and rigorous curriculum in order to fully prepare them for their remaining high school years, post-secondary education and beyond. I look forward to seeing our students respond and succeed. While clearly our focus is academic achievement, I would be remiss if I did not mention how proud I am of the school spirit showed by this group of students. From rooting on friends at games, to actively participating in school activities, to creating posters of support, our students are showing school pride and representing their school with class.

Around mid-quarter progress report time, our students are in the routine of understanding classroom expectations with respect to homework and practice, note-taking, reading and writing, and critical analysis. Please encourage your student to do his/her best and to be prepared for classes by spending time studying and reviewing notes, assignments, textbook selections, and supplementary material. It is critical for students to develop favorable study habits that reinforce learning. I am very appreciative of the many hours our students designate to their schoolwork and for the high expectations that our parents set for students completing homework and being prepared for school. Undoubtedly, the habits they form today will serve them well in future high school classes, college classes and beyond.

Elkhorn South High School faculty and administration continue to create and enhance school-wide intervention systems to support student learning. Our on-going interventions are intended to maximize student achievement by monitoring student progress and creating accountability within the learning process. Homework is essential to the learning process because it reinforces practice of new knowledge and content. Homework and practice are researched best practices that positively correlate to increasing student knowledge. I would like to inform our parents about two of our school-wide intervention systems that will help encourage learning and homework completion. The After-School Academy and the Guided Study Programs are described below:

After-School Academy - The Student Assistance Team continues to offer a structured study environment after school, complete with tutors and teachers. Any student is welcome to stop by and seek help, get caught up on assignments, or form study groups. While students are encouraged to attend on their own, we are requesting help from parents to encourage or even require their student's attendance. If students get behind in their classes, attendance may become required by the school in an effort to hold students accountable for their learning. The After School Academy is held in the Media Center Monday-Friday from 3:30-4:30. In addition to After School Academy, Elkhorn South will often place students in Academic After Hours. Academic After Hours sessions run weekly on Thursday evenings from 3:30-6:30pm and Saturday mornings from 8:30-11:30am. This sustained block of time affords students a quiet, academic-focused area to complete missing assignments or prepare for upcoming assessments.

Guided Study Program - The Guided Study Program is an intervention for students who need additional academic support during the school day. The Guided Study program operates in addition to traditional study halls. Regular education students are placed in Guided Study after a student has received two or more grades of 5 on a mid-term, quarter, or semester grade report. Students may return to regular study halls after he/she is passing all classes with a 3 or better on a mid-term, quarter or semester grade report and express confidence in his or her abilities to be successful without the program. Certified teachers and a student assistant work with the guided study students to encourage them to organize their work and improve their study habits, monitor student progress by reviewing mid-term reports and grades via PowerSchool, monitor usage of the student agenda for assignments, insist that students are engaged in constructive work each day, communicate with classroom teachers regarding student progress, provide academic support and assistance as needed and reinforce the importance of education.

Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held at Elkhorn South High School on Tuesday, October 17th and Wednesday, October 18th from 5:00-9:00 pm.

Students will be dismissed from school on these days at 2:20. I would encourage you to meet with your student's teachers and discuss his/her academic progress. Parent- Teacher Conferences allow conversations between two very important stakeholders in the learning process. Please make note of the times and dates and make attendance a priority for your family.

If you would like to contact me to discuss concerns, ask questions or comment, please call me at 402-289-0616 or email me at mkalvoda@epsne.org.

I look forward to working together to maximize our students' opportunities for educational excellence here at ESHS.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

NATIONAL MERIT SEMIFINALISTS

In September, 16,000 of the approximately 50,000 high scorers on the PSAT/NMSQT® were named National Merit Semifinalists in recognition of their outstanding academic promise. These academically talented high school seniors have an opportunity to continue in the competition for some 8,200 National Merit Scholarships, worth more than $36 million, that will be offered next spring. To be considered for a Merit Scholarship award, Semifinalists must fulfill several requirements to advance to the Finalist level of the competition. Congratulations to the following seniors who have been named National Merit Semifinalists. Each will continue in the National Merit Competition this fall. Finalists in the competition will be named in the spring. The ESHS Semifinalists are Grace Blusys, Huey-Xian Kelly Wong, and Bennett Wright.

NATIONAL MERIT COMMENDED STUDENTS

In September, about 34,000 of the approximately 50,000 high scorers on the PSAT/NMSQT® receive Letters of Commendation in recognition of their outstanding academic promise. Commended Students are named on the basis of a nationally applied Selection Index score that may vary from year to year and is below the level required for participants to be named Semifinalists in their respective states. Although Commended Students do not continue in the competition for National Merit® Scholarships, some of these students do become candidates for Special Scholarships sponsored by corporations or businesses. The ESHS Commended Student is Nicholas Shaw.

Trick or Treat So Others Can Eat

FCCLA, DECA, and FBLA are giving back to the community once again this month with the annual Trick or Treat So Others Can Eat. The three CTSO (Career and Technical Student Organizations) join forces to volunteer to “trick or treat” for canned goods and other food provisions. With world hunger as one of the biggest problems in today’s society, members will be taking critical steps in addressing this issue by not only gathering non-perishable goods, but also by raising awareness, all while giving back to the community. The event is a fantastic opportunity for spending time with friends while also helping others who are in need. All proceeds will be collected on Monday, October 30, 2017 on Collection Night and donated to the Western Douglas County Chamber of Commerce Food Bank. The more helping hands, the better, so all FCCLA, DECA and FBLA members, are strongly encouraged to participate in this service project. We will appreciate any donations school patrons are able to share when members come “Trick or Treating so Others Can Eat” at your home!

DECA EVENTS:

SchoolMessenger – Are You Up to Date?

EPS uses a parent messaging system called SchoolMessenger to send emails and phone calls to parents. To ensure you are receiving important messages from your school, be sure to let the office know of any changes to your email addresses or phone numbers.

YouTube – A Guide to Understanding Your Child’s Video Watching

YouTube is a common video watching platform used by many youths to find content on subjects that they find interesting or enjoyable to watch. In order to have a better understanding of what your child is watching on YouTube, below is a list of questions that you can ask:

What’s trending today? Trending videos appear on YouTube’s home page and show the most recent viral videos, what’s funny, and what’s being shared. Knowing what’s trending will give parents a better understanding of the type of content your child is being exposed to by them simply going to the YouTube home page.

What channels do you subscribe to? If a child is taking the time to subscribe to a specific channel, it’s a guarantee that the content being shown is something of interest to them. Get involved and find out what those channels are, so you can get a better idea of what specific content your child finds interesting and why. This could turn out to be a significant subject area interest for your child and a good common ground topic for conversations.

What’s in your library? One’s YouTube library is the place where videos that the user has liked or shared are stored. This too, is a way to discover content that your child finds interesting.

What was the last video you shared? Youth share things with others only when they find them to be interesting or enjoyable, or they feel that others will enjoy them as well. Get a glimpse into what videos are catching their attention by asking this question.
