Hillrise Huskies...Teamwork Makes the Dream Work!

Happy Thursday Hillrise Families!

Let's hope the weather is Spring-like for Spring Break! I'm sure that EVERYONE would benefit from a little vitamin D! We can all come back charged up and ready to go!

Staff have an in-service day tomorrow so there is no school for students. We will be busy learning more about our Elkhorn Instructional Model, working with our district grade levels, and starting to prepare for next year!

Spring Pictures are Tuesday, March 27th. They will take place in the morning.

Look for report cards coming home in backpacks on Wednesday, March 28th!

Have a wonderful Spring Break!
